of the country, by building parallel lines, would supply all the people with homes. The one item of advertising alone, if it could be saved to our people, as it will be saved under Socialism, amounts to over two hundred millions annually. And these are not the greatest items of waste that might be enumerated, did space and time permit.

Later I may send you an article on the wastes of competition.

The Beautiful Kingdom.

There are faces alight with the glory of love in the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

There are hearts that are light as the clear skies above

In that kingdom of beauties untold. And happy is he who can dwell in that land. Where children are—ling with scepters in hand,

For youth is the monarch of one happy band, in the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

No sorrows lurk deep in grim thickets of gloom in the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

But the flowers of beauty are ever in bloom And the pathways are shining as gold,

The laughter of little ones borne on the air Is surcease of sorrow and cure for all care, For happiness reigns and has banished despair

In the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

The little hands wave a warm welcome to all. In the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

The sweet little voices in harmony call, And their little arms wait to entold.

And Father Time pauses to taste of the joys, To join in the games full of romping and noise

That are played at all hours by sweet girls and boys in the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

Come, walk with me now through the cool shadows deep in the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

And backward the years of our troubles will creep While stories of youth are retold.

All burdens grow light and all cares we dismiss; The gates are unlocked by a sweet baby kiss, And Love sits enthroned in the City of Bliss in the "Kingdom of Never-grow-old."

WILL M. MAUPIN.

Fell Dead.

A man fell dead in Chicago the other day from heart trouble, and thousands die every day in the same way. But the cause of nine out of ten of such cases of heart trouble is indigestion. The cure is Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. The explanation is that the swollen, inflamed, and engorged stomach, presses right up against the heart and prevents it from working; your heart flutters, palpitates, pains, and you are short of breath; some lose it forever. Just try for these symptoms a few doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and see how quickly it will cure you. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Des Are Items.

I wish to correct the error made by me in last week's items: Wm. Stevenson bought the store building and dwelling of Alex. White at Brunot, Mo., instead of Brainard. Chas. Stevenson will rent the store building and move his goods into it soon.

H. F. Merritt, of Fulton, Ill., was here this week and bought a car load of hogs from the Chilton Bros.

The Holiness people are clearing off the grounds for their big camp meeting, to be held here next month. They are arranging seats to accommodate 10,000 people. They will have a lunch stand and serve meals at all hours.

Abb. Daniels has gone to Gainesville, Mo., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Harrison.

Chas. Stevenson shipped a car load of hogs to St. Louis last week. He was accompanied by his son, Winfield.

The Woodmen will give a picnic soon.

Dave Stevenson was in town Sunday from Williamsburg.

H. J. Wray and wife spent Sunday with his daughter near Brunot. John Stevenson was in St. Louis last week.

E. W. Graves went to Greenville on business last week.

W. J. Fitz had business at Annapolis Thursday.

Mrs. C. L. Williams was brought home from Piedmont last week, and is very ill at this writing with typhoid fever.

Miss Etta Keathley spent Sunday at home.

Dr. Toney, of Piedmont, was seen on our streets Saturday.

Ed. Benson, of Annapolis, spent a few hours in town Sunday.

Rev. Burgess and wife, one of the Holiness preachers from Texas, was in town Friday. He preached at the M. E. church Friday night.

Dr. Jones, of Brunot, was in town Saturday to see Master Carl Fitz, who has been real sick.

Mrs. Lizzie Healey is visiting her sisters at Elvins and Fredericktown.

Extra quality green coffee 8 pounds for $1.00 at Lopez Store Co.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Try Creamo for horses and mules. The feed that benefits when others fail. Sold at Ironton Flour Mill.

The Fear of Death

Often haunts the miserable, dyspeptic, bilious patient, who suffers from heart palpitations, chronic cough, melancholy, nervousness, headache, colic, constipation, etc. No need for fear, for in Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin, you will find a safe, pleasant and perfect cure, for all this pain, distress and worry. It clears the brain, purifies the blood, and cures all forms of indigestion and bowel trouble. Try it. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Dairy men say Creamo is a superior feed for milch cows. Ironton Mfg. Co., agents.

Life Insurance.

For twenty-five cents you can now insure yourself and family against any bad results from an attack of colic or diarrhoea during the summer months. That is the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that has never been known to fail. Buy it now, it may save life. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Capitalism vs. Individuality.

CLIO, ARK., August 13, 1905. Ed. Register:—I find in the Commoner of August 11th an article from the pen of Wilber J. Abbott, from which I wish to quote the following: "My friend and colleague, Dr. Gregory, was impressed the other day by the pitiful case of a slain workman who was known only by his tag '96,' about his neck, which identified him to the paymaster. How many of these there are, no census can enumerate. Yet each tagged man has—or had—the hopes, the aspirations, the passions and the virtues of other men. Under the theory of our civilization, too, he has the rights and the liberties of all others. But the ugly fact is that he enjoys neither rights nor liberty. The slave of the South was in most matters as free, and in vital things vastly more fortunate than he." And yet some people fear that Socialism would destroy the individuality. What individuality had "96" to lose? And yet there are thousands of him; and the number is growing larger every year as small farmers and small business men are being reduced to the ranks of labor.

Capitalism destroys, and has already destroyed, the individuality of millions of men, women and children, and is also destroying the homes of the people at a high rate of speed. And yet I find some people (thank God they are becoming fewer every day) who, when I mention Socialism in their presence, throw up their hands in holy horror because, as they say, Socialism would destroy the family, the home.

Who is it has not heard, or read, of the places in large factory towns where mothers leave their babies while they go to the factories to work? Probably those babies are tagged like "No. 96." Statistics show that seventy-five per cent. of the people of the large cities move every year, and that only ten per cent. of laborers own their own homes. What has destroyed the homes of the ninety per cent.? In New York City six per cent. of the people own all the property. Capitalism has produced this condition, and now has the effrontery to claim that Socialism will destroy the home. On the contrary, Socialists claim that Socialism will only not destroy the homes but will restore the lost homes to the people.
